

Precise title of the Common Transnational Action	4.5.2. Coordinated regional events, Atlantic Area Marine Leisure and Environment Common Days
Title and number of the Generic action corresponding to the concerned Common Transnational Action	4.5. Promote and support events that encourage environmental awareness and improvement of the environmental qualities in the Marine Leisure Sector of the Atlantic Area.
Objectives of the Common Transnational Action	Organisation of regional events that promote the environmental objectives of the project, including the organisation of one big event common to the Atlantic Area - clean coast day. Inform regional, national and European governments about main challenges and obstacles facing the marine leisure sector in the Atlantic Area.
Target of the Common Transnational Action	Engaged nautical entities, responsible politics and general public.
Descriptive summary of the Common Transnational Action	Partners organize initiatives that involve main actors of the nautical sector. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Organisation of regional events that promote the environmental objectives of the project. • Organisation of one or two big events common to the Atlantic Area. These events can be : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Initiatives Océanes. More info: www.initiativesoceanes.org - An innovative Watersports and Environment Atlantic Area Day organised during the European Maritime Day). Develop in cooperation with environmental NGO's a common clean coast day to all regions. • Delegate a NEA2 task force to represent the project in the European Maritime Day Conference.
The different steps in the implementation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Clean coast day > to define date and cooperation agreement - European Maritime Day > to define a group and objectives - Conferences, seminars and workshop > upon confirmation
Partners participating	Conseil Général du Finistère; Nautisme en Bretagne; Cornwall Council, Diputación Provincial de A Coruña ; Diputación de Huelva, Valimar; Intercéltica; North Devon+; Région Basse Normandie; Conseil Général de la Manche ; Mid West Regional Authority; Ards Borough Council; Irish Canoe Union
Partners wishing to lead the Action	Interceltica, Nautisme en Bretagne; Cornwall Council
Transnational character of the common transnational action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Coordinated selection and realization of regional actions, exchanges of experiences - A major event common to the Atlantic Area - Strong common communication
Methodology for implementing the common transnational action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Within the "Marine Leisure and Environment Actions" inter-regional commission: orientation and coordination of regional actions, exchanges of experiences - Within the "Marine Leisure and Environment Actions" inter-regional commission: implementation of NEA "Marine Leisure and Environment" events, definition of objectives and content of the event, choice of date for the implementation in the regions, inter-regional coordination, communication (media, tools...) - In the regions: organization of regional events and NEA "Marine Leisure and Environment" events - Report within the "environment" network meeting every year
Documents that will result from the action	-
Communication (progression, results,..)	Websites, newsletters, Conferences
Indicators	Number of events. Number of people involved.